

A series of Master Classes from internationally recognised mediators.

As part of its Advanced Mediator training programme MATA has arranged a sixth series of four Master Classes open to both practising commercial mediators and non mediator guests.

Each Master Class takes place in central London from 4.30pm until 6.30pm followed by an informal reception with wine and snacks.

Numbers are limited to a maximum of 30 people per Master Class.

The Venue

The Mezzanine
British American Tobacco
Globe House
4 Temple Place
London
WC2R 2PG

4.30pm until 6.30pm
followed by refreshments.

THE DATES AND THE MEDIATORS

5th February 2009

Alan Limbury

Founder member and former Chair of LEADR, the foremost mediation body in Australia. Barrister and international mediator.

5th March 2009

Beverly-Ann Rogers

One of the top female commercial mediators in the UK. Barrister, vice-chair of the Bar ADR Committee.

2nd April 2009

David Plant

Pre-eminent US lawyer and commercial mediator. Specialist IP mediator. Author of "Resolving International Intellectual Disputes".

7th May 2009

Heather Allen

Superb trainer and facilitator with particular focus on cross-cultural. Board member of Civil Mediation Council.

The master class content will include:

- Interview of a prominent commercial mediator
- Identification of key techniques used by the mediator
- Workshop on the key techniques led by MATA faculty
- Question and answer session

Registration

Please register using the enclosed booking form, sending it together with your payment to:

MATA
212 Piccadilly
London
W1J 9HF

The Cost

Places cost £75.00 + VAT (£88.13) for each Master Class payable to MATA, or book all four dates for £250 + VAT (£293.75)

AMT club members (those who have attended the annual MATA Advanced Mediator Training Course) are entitled to a 20% discount.

*"The best opportunity yet to explore the master skill set and what that actually means."
"Enjoyable as well as educative."
"Lively, fun and informative two hours."
"Invaluable access to methodology of top UK mediators."*

Further information can be found on our website at www.mata.org.uk